"CONGRATULATIONS" TO OUR GRADUATING SENIORS

#29 LUCAS JUNGER

#18 MATT RASOILO

The Southern Regional Baseball Program would like to acknowledge the individuals who have supported the team, players, and coaches throughout the season. Southern Regional Baseball cannot be successful without you and your dedication.

A special thought of gratitude goes out to Stafford Little League President Darren Steadman, Stafford Vice-President Dave Valeriani, and Stafford Player Agent John Demarco. They provide a generous donation, which allows the program to have an additional middle school coach. As well as allowing the Varsity team to play their annual Doc Cramer Baseball game under the lights at the Doc Cramer complex this season. It is a fantastic experience for the boys to play under the lights in front of hundreds of fans and your hard work to get the field ready does not go un-noticed.

A special thank you goes out to the Baseball Parents, Parents Association, and the Grand Slam Club who have shown their constant support to their sons and baseball here at Southern Regional. The spring training trip to Myrtle Beach was an experience the players will never forget. As parents, you have raised quality kids who do "the right things" and for that you should be proud.

Pinelands vs. Southern

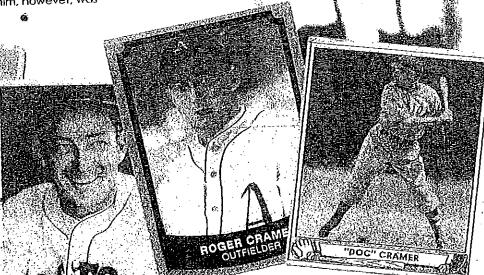

Roger Maxwell "Doc" Cramer was born on July 22, 1905, in Beach Haven and moved to Manahowkin as a young child. He allended the Manahawkin elementory school and Barnegat High School, where he played shortstop on the high school baseball team. After graduation, he worked as a carpenter while playing in the semi-professional baseball league in Beach Haven. It was there he was discovered by Jimmy Dykes and former Philadelphia Athletics catcher Ralph "Cy" Perkins, who asked him to try out for the Athletics. Connie Mack signed him to a $3,500 professional contract, and he was assigned to Martinsburg, WV, for the 1929 season where he hit .404. He began to see more time on the big league level in lale 1929, and played 94 games in the 1932 season while compiling a .336 batting overage and a .396 botting avg. in 154 gomes in 1933. On June 10, 1932, Cramer went 6-far-6 at the plate; he later fied the major league record by going 6-for-6 again on July 13, 1935. He also hit for the cycle on June 10, 1934. He spent a few seasons in Boston beginning in 1936 and then moved to Washington for a year in 1941 before finding a seven-year home on Ihe Detroit Tigers. He is credited for playing a major role in Ihe Tigers' 1944 pennant chase and was described by H. Salinger as "The best fielding center fielder in the league this year." 1948 was Cramer's last major league season; afterwards, he managed the Buffalo Bisons and Seattle Rainiers for Iwo seasons opiece before retiring back to his hometown. He look up corpenlry again, as well as duck hunting. Doc Cramer passed away on Sept. 9, 1990. His legend still lives on through his family as well as in town; anyone who lives in this area surely knows Doc Cramer Boulevard and the impressive Doc Cramer Sports Complex. More importantly than his stats or whatever is named after him, however, was his pure love of the game.

VARSITY SEASON IN REVIEW

Southern Regional High School

From: Asbury Park Press: Preseason Review

Key Returners:

Junior OF Jack Bush .414 Average, 24 hits, 17 Singles, 15 runs scored, 7 doubles, 10 RBI'S, .478 On Base Percentage .569 Slugging Percentage

Senior Pitcher Lucas Junger Senior 3B Andrew Smith Senior SS Dylan Brady Junior OF Nick Poling

Key Newcomers:

Pertinent Information:

Junior Jack Bush will be a force with the bat for the Rams this season. The junior hit third in the lineup last year and looks to improve on his power numbers and impressive .414 batting average. Senior Lucas Junger (who will attending Tiffin University in the fall) is the only pitcher returning with Varsity Innings under his belt. Southern has a young squad this year and will look to improve with every game.

Page 8 South.

Alex Herceg, C, Jackson Memorial - The Jaguars catcher hit .415 with seven home runs and a leam-high 35 RBI, the most productive offensive season of any catcher in the Shore Conference

Kyle Perry, WIL, Toms River South - Peny will likely not play on the infield this year, but if asked to be the full-time shortstop, second baseman or third baseman, he'd likely be the best in the division. Perry is an ideal top-of-the-order hitter as evidenced by his .489 average, 10 doubles, 33 runs scored and 23 steals.

Mike Rytelewski, 55, Brick Memorial • The Muslangs have a healthy helping of new players in the lineup, but they return a shortstop that hit in the middle of the order in Rytelewski. The senior has a quick bat from the left side that produced a .338 average and 21 RBI.

Matt Meleo, OF, Jackson Memorial - Meleo hit .415 with 14 extra base hits, including five home runs and lour runs. He also showed his element of clutch play with a game-winning three-run homer in the bottom of the seventh of a 7-5 win over Jackson Liberty In the Shore Conference Tournament

Joe Ogren, 55, Jackson Memorial - Ogren was a super-utility player for the Jaguars last year, playing left field and third base when he wasn't pitching. This year, he'll get his shot in the middle of the diamond, which make his .398 average and .633 slugging percentage look even better.

TCHERS TO WATE

Connor Kaden, Toms River South The Wake Forest recruit was dominant for the most part In 2010, striking out 69 hitters in 42 innings last year.

Dan Falvo, Jackson Memorial - Falvo became Jackson's blg-game pitcher last season, posting a 6-2 record with a 3.13 ERA.

Chris McKenna, Toms River South - McKenna will fall in behind Kaden as the Indians No. 2, but the coaching staff at South insists that both Kaden and McKenna are equally worthy of being called No. 1 starters. McKenna was impressive in 16 2/3 innings last year, striking out 21 and running a 1.21 ERA

Ren Musicant, Toms River North - The senior right-hander will grab the reins at the lop of the Mariners stall after the graduation of workhorse Brian Glibert.

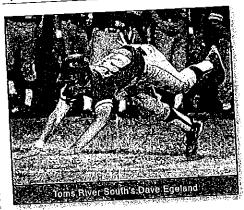

Kevin Earr, Jackson Memorial - Car may have earned a spot in the regular rotation, but his performance as a relief ace will make coach Frank Malta think long and hard about moving him from a role in which he was so good. Last year, Carr went 4-0 with a 3.95 ERA in 28 1/3 innings over 15 appearances.

Teams listed by predicted order of finish

1. Toms River South

The Indians won three championships last season but bowed out early in the big one, losing to Clearview and Shane Taylor in the first round of the NISIAA South Jersey Group IV. Rarely does a program run out a team as good as the 2010 version of Tonis River South with the ability to do the same thing the next season, but the Indians have a chance to add more championships to the trophy case this year. Counter Kaden and Chris McKenna will head a deep rotation of power arms after both gave the Indians quality innings last season. Toms River South also returns five position players in the starting lineup, and that doesn't include designated hitter Dan Scheller, who will also spell starting eatcher and Monmouth University recruit Kyle Perry. When he's not handling the pitching staff, Perry will be one of the top leadoff hitters in the Shore Conference with returnees

By Matt Manley - Staff Writer

Steve Petrosino, Dave Egeland, Mitch Dressing and McKenna fullawing him in the order. Newcomers R J. Devish and Rocco Mellot have been strong in the presension and centerfielder John Nugicwich gives the Indians speed in the outlield and in the No. 9 sput in the order. Juniors John Leiter and Kyle Driscoll continue to battle for time as the No. 3 statter while senior Rocco Cianella will also earn inmigs.

2. Jackson Memorial

With six players back to the lineup, the Jaguars should be an offensive machine again. Alex Herceg. Mant Meleo and Andy Lopez all had strong junior seasons, with Herceg and Meleo earning ASM All-Shore First Team honors, and Joe Ogren and Mike Folk broke out as suphumores. Those five will be the core of the lineup, with sophomore outfielder Matt Thaiss moving up into the middle of the order after getting a varsity call-up as a freshman. Day Falvo, Ogren and Kevin Carr - who was Jackson's relief ace last year - head the pitching staff and head coach Frank Malta is leaning toward junior Alex Daniele as a spot starter who will see significant innings. Sophomore Spencer Young will look to fill the large shoes of Bryan Soloman at third base, but the depth of the lineup will take care of a large chunk of that responsibility and if the pitching staff is indeed as promising and deep as it appears, the Jaguars will have as good a chance as any team in the Shore Conference to win a county. conference or state championship took over in 2009.

3. Tams River North

The Mariners will try to establish a new identity without former star and Seton Hall freshman Brian Gilbert. In actuality, last year was the rebuilding year, with a slew of sophomores working their way into the lineup, as well as a freshman shortstop in Karl Blum. This year, those sophomores are a year older and will surround a handful of senior leaders looking for one last big year to help the Mariners get back to the top of the division. Eric Peccararo, Mike Daniels and Tyler Lawrence are three seniors in the everyday lineup and Ben Musicant. Lawrence and Ryan Mihelkovitz will head the senior-heavy pitching staff. If the senior trio performs well, Toms River North has the young talent to re-emerge as a contender for A South this season and with the youth on the field, the Mariners could be set up for a strong three-year.

4. Toms River East

If experience counts for everything, the Raiders are the third-best team in the division, returning six players to the starting lineup along with a pitcher to the starting rotation. Only M.J. Papek returns to the starting rotation, so the pitching is somewhat of a question mark to begin with. Defensively, Toms River East has potential, with seniors Joe Clarizio and Dan Wasilick manning shortstop and second base. respectively. Clarizio will also pitch, although the emphasis on defense has him and coach Bill Frank looking to pick their spots in order to keep him at shortstop as much as possible. Seniors Keith Tappert and Dave Leonard return to the outfield, while A.J. Capoue will pitch, DH, and play some right field while hitting in the middle of the order. Albert Rodriguez moves to first base after serving as a part-time DH last year, and Sr. Justin Ashkonis and sophomore Christian Danyo move into the starting lineup. The Raiders should be able to score again and will be solid up the middle defensively. but the pitching remains an x-factor, particularly behind Popek.

5. Brick Memorial

The challenge for Brick Memorial this season will be hanging with a group of teams that have more experience than the Mustangs do. Senior shortstop Mike Rytelewski is the headliner after hitting 338 with some power last year and juniors Kevin Nilsen and Ray Triano both return after starting as sophomores, Junior Zack Santos will replace Ion Del Valle, who set the school single-season hits record last season, in center field and is athletic enough to handle the defensive end of things. Juniors Mike O'Neill and Spencer Cohen will see time on the field as well, while Kevin Corris will get innings on the mound. Three sophomores will start for first-year head coach Evan Rizzitello. led by position players Corey Zytko at shortstop and Kyle Skoog at first base. Brian Correll has the inside track for a spot in the rotation with senior ace Rob Schmidt and fellow senior Michael Salemo, who is still working his way back from shoulder surgery, according to Rizzitello. A sleeper for the Mustangs could be outlielder Kyle Cala. a freshman who impressed the ceaching staff enough to earn a starting job in right field.

6. Southern

The Rams are the mystery team of the division this year. They are not going to be Group IV championship contenders from the outset like Toms River South and Jackson, but they could very well be good enough to climb past the other three A South teams to the third spot in the standings. Southern returns four starting position players in Jack Bush, Andrew Smith, Dylan Brady and Nick Poling, two of which are juniors in Bush and Peling. Bush has a chance to leave his mark on the division this year after hitting .414 last season. He will lead an effense that will try to replace standout catcher Dave Troutman, Senior Lucas Junger is the staff ace and will give secondyear coach Tom Natoli plenty of quality innings, but like Brick Memorial, there is a lot of inexperience between the five-or-so returning players

OCEAN COUNTY TOURNAMENT

SOUTHERN REGIONAL 11 LAKEWOOD 1

Mark Heslin went 2 for 4 with a two-run homerun, double and three RBI's to propel Southern Regional into the Ocean County Tournament.
